1. The junction cable is being laid in connection with an extension of the 63-Exchange at Niederschoeneweide. No further details of the Stalinallee - Boxhagenerstrasse cabling are at present available, except that it will be extended to Lichtenberg in one direction.
2. Cable laying has already commenced, but work has subsequently come to a standstill on account of prolonged frost, and will probably be completed about the end of May 1954. The work is in the hands of Fernmeldekabel-Anlagenbau, Berlin.
